Every person deciding to participate in the raffle knows and accepts the conditions and limitations set forth in these regulations. By participating, the contestant agrees to be bound by these rules and the decisions of the Organizer, which shall be final in all matters relating to the raffle. Any violation of these rules, or of procedures or systems in place for conducting the promotion, will result in the immediate exclusion of the participant from the raffle and/or revocation of the awards.

Article 1: Organizers: Asociación Familia Padre Fabretto is the only organizer of the raffle. As such, it will be solely responsible for it. For the purposes of this regulation it may referred to as "Organizer" or "Asociación Familia Padre Fabretto."

**Airfare terms and conditions subject to change.*

\*The prize does not include food or transportation expense during stay in Nicaragua.*

Article 7: Drawing: The drawing will be conducted through the digital platform RandomPicker between all participants registered during the period of the raffle. The Organizer will determine one winner. If the winner cannot be located, does not comply with the regulations, declines the prize, or refuses to sign the acceptance document, the prize will be forfeited. The winner announcement will be through a posting on Fabretto's Facebook wall: <https://www.facebook.com/Fabretto.org/> and <https://www.facebook.com/FFabretto>.

The Organizer will make three attempts to locate the winner for a period of 72 hours, via the email address provided by the participant in the registration form. If the winner is not located during this time, or does not meet the regulatory requirements for the prize, the Organizer will assume the prize has been forfeited. The organizer does not have an obligation to investigate the reasons for which the winner is not able to be contacted by the methods described above.

Article 8: Claiming the Prize: As is indicated in the above article, to accept the award, the winner must respond to the Organizer's electronic notification within a period of 72 hours. The winner should send the Organizer a scanned copy of his/her identification to fulfill the requirements for delivering the final prize.

Once the prize has been accepted, following the steps detailed above, the organizer will reserve accommodation for the winner and his/her companion at the sponsor hotels, and will send confirmation through email. Once the flight and hotel reservations have been made, changes to reservations will not be possible. Should the winner cancel a trip after the flights have been reserved, he/she will be responsible for any losses incurred by the organizer as a result of said cancelation.

If the prize is not accepted, or is rejected for any reason, it will become the property of the Organizer, who may use it as he/she sees fit. Once the dates to claim the prize have passed, the winner loses the right to claim it. At this point the Organizer will not recognize any prize, and therefore will not be obligated to recognize any claims.

The prize must be claimed ONLY by the person who has been declared the winner and is non-transferable.

Article 9: Disqualification: If at any moment before, during or after the raffle, it is discovered that the winner failed to comply with these regulations, the Organizer will disqualify him/her and void the prize. If a failure to comply with regulations is discovered after the prize has been delivered, the Organizer will demand its return through legal means.

Article 10: Responsibility, Conditions and Restrictions:

Asociación Familia Padre Fabretto is not responsible for the use that is given to them or by judicial or administrative proceedings that were to establish related to quality, warranty or durability of the prizes awarded. The guarantee of property received by the winner under this promotion will be that which is offered by the respective sponsors. The winner agrees that Asociación Familia Padre Fabretto will not be held responsible for quality assurance, which if necessary must be addressed by the prize winner and the establishment in question.

e- The winner relieves the Organizer of all responsibility for any injury to person or property that may be incurred, by the winner or third parties, during the redemption of the prize.

f- The winner will receive his/her prize, and no refunds or exchanges will be accepted. If the winner does not accept the prize or its conditions, the prize will be considered rejected and void with regard to the winner, who is not entitled to claim any whole or partial compensation.

g- The winner must sign an acknowledgement of receipt of the prize, accepting the limitations and conditions that the award represents and relieving the Organizer from all liability.

h- The right of the prize itself is not transferable or negotiable and cannot be traded or exchanged for cash. This prize is given only to the winner.

i- If it is shown that a person did not provide correct data or received the prize by deception, the organizer may retract the prize at any time and reserves the right to take legal action.
